

SOCIAL VALUE STRATEGY

2022 - 2027

BACKGROUND

As an award-winning facilities management company – technology led, people driven – Arcus aims to fully embed Sustainability into the management and operation of the business, adopt Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) considerations and activities, and take actions that result in improved, and where possible positive, social, economic, and environmental impacts.

E & G commitments are addressed separately in the Arcus Net Zero Pathway report. Supply Chain management considerations fall outside the scope of this document. This strategy focuses on Arcus' social value (SV) commitments and aspirations only, for the period April 2022 to March 2027.

Social Value is one of Arcus' five strategic pillars. It is therefore a core driver in helping Arcus achieve its vision:

To provide outstanding FM services – technology led, people driven.

Our definition of Social Value (SV) at Arcus and in this strategy document is:

“ The act of giving back to our communities and to our society, leaving it better off because of our interventions. ”

Our SV commitment statement is:

“ We at Arcus FM recognise that we the reflect the wider community in which our business exists, and we will play our part in contributing to the health of our communities. ”

We will prioritise interventions which aim to improve the life chances of individuals in the following under-represented groups:

Young people generally in particular care leavers.

Those serving or soon to be released from prison.

Ex-services personnel.

Individuals with long term health conditions.

SOCIAL VALUE AT ARCUS - WHERE TO FROM HERE?

Social Value has been a growing trend in the workplace and facilities management profession for several years, and our industry is now expected to lead the way in delivering Social Value interventions in the communities in which our clients operate. Social Value is no longer a 'nice to have', it is now a must have for a growing FM business such as Arcus. The Arcus Social Value Strategy 2022-2027 is therefore key to supporting our growth ambitions.

In developing this strategy, consideration has been made of:

- Our external environment including government policy, legislative changes, social sector developments and national societal and economic influences.
- SFMI Index (Employment; Sustainable Communities; Wellbeing and Employee Development sections) and National TOMs Facilities Management Plug In framework. The TOMs have been designed specifically for our FM profession, they enable us to focus our social value work on key outcomes or aims, and then calculate and report on the economic value that work creates. Each TOM outcome / aim and corresponding social value reporting metric forms part of our social value strategy, and any interested parties can compare Arcus with our competitor's performance against these.
- SWOT analysis- consideration of our strengths and weaknesses as an FM provider in relation to social value; our customers and their challenges.
- Our experiences to date, which have taught us that as a growing business, the most significant way in which Arcus can positively impact our priority groups as well as support our recruitment challenges, is through the offer of employment.
- Supporting Arcus' Employee Value Proposition by enabling current and potential colleagues to feel proud to work for Arcus thereby improving our retention and recruitment levels.

To encourage engagement from individuals in our under-represented groups we will continue to host employer's fairs, and conduct employer talks and visits in schools, colleges, prisons etc., and maintain proactive relationships with our social value partners and customers collaborating with them on SV interventions that support employability for individuals in our four priority groups.

I am delighted to release our Social Value Strategy. Arcus is fully committed to delivering a positive impact in our communities and Social Value is woven throughout the business with colleagues at all levels engaged and ready to contribute.

This strategy is a live plan and as we continue to deliver, learn, and engage with those around us, updates will likely be required alongside a review that will take place every two years.

Progress against this strategy will be considered by our Sustainability Committee, chaired by the CEO. We will report on our performance against each reporting metric through our annual Social Value report.

At Arcus, we are proud of the work we do to support our communities. We aim to raise our profile as an inclusive employer by celebrating our work with our colleagues and the public.

This strategy will support our goals in talent acquisition and retention by fostering a sense of pride throughout our workforce.

Our Social Value strategy will play a key part in supporting our rapid growth trajectory as we attract similarly-minded businesses to our customer base.

We are passionate about making a positive contributions to the communities in which we work, and we aim to inspire and enable other employers to add to these contributions.
